

I have found the traffic and weather info available on xm radio to be very valuable when travelling. It is very hard to find local stations that have weather updates when you need them. This service is not available anywhere else and I hope it continues to be available.

I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160 and continue to enable satellite radio to offer this service.

Dr. Robert Salley